

Directions to the Hope and Anchor - Midford

From Bristol and the West

Approach from A39 or A4. At the Globe Inn roundabout take exit for Combe Down. Follow this road for 3 miles, continuing over roundabout, go straight across at the Red Lion roundabout, then right at the double mini-roundabout onto Midford Road. Follow the road for three miles and the Hope and Anchor is on your left.

From the South West

Exit M5 at Junction 23 for A39 Glastonbury, then A361 Shepton Mallet and A367 Bath. Approaching Bath at Park and Ride roundabout, take first exit for Bath City Centre. Turn right at Red Lion Roundabout right at the double mini-roundabout onto Midford Road. Follow the road for three miles and the Hope and Anchor is on your left.

From the South

Approach Bath on the A36 as far as Wolverton, turn left on to the B3110 marked Norton St Philip. Go through Norton St Philip and Hinton Charterhouse. Midford is about two miles further on from Hinton Charterhouse, the Hope and Anchor is on the right just before the viaduct. The car park is behind the Hope and Anchor on the right just after the viaduct.
